

For the 10th General Chapter

*M*ary, Mother of faith, you who receive, preserve and fulfill the Word, teach us to persevere in docile listening to the voice of the Spirit, while remaining open to the newness offered us.

*W*oman imbued with the Word, living Tabernacle of God, help us to walk the paths of the new evangelization, with a bold faith, as we carry Jesus Christ within us.

*P*rophecy of these new times, give us the ability to believe and so to speak in order to offer to all "the charity of the Truth."
"Make us capable "of inhabiting the internet" so that the wonderful news of the Gospel will resound every where.

*Q*ueen of the Apostles, shed light on our journey for this 10th General Chapter so that, in total availability to the designs of the Father, we may rekindle the "fire" that rendered Paul, Alberione and Thecla intrepid and impassioned missionaries. Amen.
