

Dear brothers and sisters,

I ask you to pray once again for the Ukraine, which is in the midst of a very delicate situation. While I hope that all the components of the country strive to overcome their differences so as to build together the future of the nation, I make a heartfelt plea to the international community to support every initiative in favor a dialogue and peace.

(Pope Francis, Angelus message, 2 March 2014)
