

Those who do not live to serve, do not serve to live

Daily life allows us to touch, with our hands, many demands that concern the poorest and most tested of people.

We are asked for that particular attention that leads us to notice the state of suffering and need in which so many brothers and sisters find themselves.

Sometimes we pass by situations of dramatic poverty and it seems that they do not touch us; everything continues as if it were nothing, into an indifference that eventually creates hypocrites and, without our realizing it, leads to a form of spiritual lethargy that numbs the soul and renders life barren.

People who pass by, who move on in life without noticing the needs of others, without seeing many spiritual and material needs, are people who pass by without living, they are people who do not need others.

Remember well: those who do not live to serve, do not serve to live.
